Item 2 of the provisional agenda*
Adoption of the agenda and other organizational matters

Participation of intergovernmental organizations in the work of the sixth session of the Commission on Sustainable Development

Note by the Secretariat

1. A request has been received from the Arab Organization for Agricultural Development to attend the sixth session of the Commission on Sustainable Development, as an intergovernmental organization.

2. According to rule 74 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council, representatives of intergovernmental organizations accorded permanent observer status by the General Assembly and of other intergovernmental organizations designated on a continuing basis by the Council or invited by the commission may participate, without a right to vote, in the deliberations of the commission on questions within the scope of the activities of the organizations.

3. The Secretariat has reviewed the credentials of the above organization and recommends that it be invited to attend the sixth session of the Commission as an intergovernmental organization, with the status of observer.
